I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist

by Norman L. Geisler and Frank Turek

PASTOR HOSLER RECOMMENDS a truly unique work that's not only comprehensive, but easy to read. Geisler and Turek have written the only book that builds the case for Christianity from the ground up—it's the 12 points in a book! Challenging for skeptics, engaging for seekers, and affirming for Christians. Foreword by David Limbaugh. Endorsed by Lee Strobel, Josh McDowell, Ravi Zacharias, Hank Hanegraaff, Phillip Johnson, Bill Dembski, Cal Thomas, and others.

If you have read numerous Christian apologetics books, you will find that this one is by far the best in scope, logic, and wit. The authors convincingly build up their case in layers, starting with well-reasoned arguments why God exists, and building in stages as to why Jesus is the way to go, once everything else is accepted.

Geisler and Turek include run-ins they've had with professors and debate opponents, making for an interesting read. The appendixes, which feature a mock dialogue between a Christian and an atheist, are entertaining. The book covers all the important issues that this topic entails, from cosmology, life origins, evolution, morality, and a defense of the Bible.

It would be difficult for an atheist to read this book without being impressed by the quality of the theistic arguments as presented by the authors. The objections of skeptics are confronted with confidence.

I highly recommend this book to both atheists and Christians, and to anyone else interested in this topic. You can acquire this book from Parable Books in St. Joe or from Christian Book Distributors.
