NAPIER PRAYER SHEET

January 11th, 2009

NEW:

Ursula Breitzkreuz fell and broke her arm in two places. She is home now and wearing a cast.

Velma Piedt is still in the hospital so that her physical therapy can be completed. She did have a stroke, but there was no paralysis with it.

JoAnne Smith (former member) fell & broke her elbow. She had surgery this past Thursday.

Werner & Jill Riedel (Brian Dokter's sister & brother-in-law) lost their home and vehicles in a house fire on Monday night.

Brad (the son of a friend of Michelle Scott) was in a motorcycle accident and is paralyzed from the waist down with only a 20% chance to ever walk again. Michelle's friend, Bridget, believes there's a God, but is not very religious. Michelle asks prayer for Brad's healing, and for this circumstance to be the way to the truth and knowledge of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Bridget, her husband, and their son live in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Michael Panaccinko (director of the NAB Bible School in Russia) whose baby was born prematurely and is struggling.

UPDATES:

Kurt Garbuschewski is continuing testing of his heart. He has to have his fairly new pacemaker replaced again because of a defect.

Martha Proctor is improving and the pain is less severe. The doctor reported that the x-rays look good. Martha will have therapy two to three times a week at the hand clinic.

Irene Sirk had rotator cuff surgery last September and just recently has had some pain in her arm again.

Art Pelzer (Irma Vanderboegh's brother), who suffered a stroke, is thankful for those who have prayed for him and sent cards of encouragement. He does not have any feeling yet on his right side, but is able to walk with a cane. He is also having some difficulty with speech, but is determined to try and get back to normal as much as possible.

ONGOING:

Middle & High School Students

Those in our church who are unemployed, that God would open work opportunities for them.

Health needs of Bill & Ruth Gatchell, Lindy Hill, and Jim Hodina (Jim & Jo Ann Rhodes' son-in-law).

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

SIG & GRACE SCHUSTER

After having suffered health problems and having to slow down in his work, Sig says that God has been gracious, and he feels fully recovered. His responsibilities are raising prayer and financial support from the different churches. Between September 15th and December 8th, there were 7 Bible school sessions held.

Praise:

- Rev. Daryl & Loretta Martin gave 1/3 of their time as director of the Rostov Bible School.
- The generosity of Park Meadows Baptist Church for committing $115,000 toward the purchase of facility for Rostov Bible School.
- For open doors in Russia and eager students. Eighty-five percent of graduates end up serving in pastoral and leadership roles.

Pray for:

- Volunteer teachers who require official letters of invitation and entry visas.
- Additional finances for an estimated cost of $450,000.
- At least 100 additional churches who will pray for the Russian ministry and support their annual budget.

PMRs: Irma Vanderboegh & Lois Breitzkreuz
